Aucoot Channel Hearing

Mattapoisett Selectmen held an informal meeting to allow discussion of a proposed channel in Aucoot Cove to the Indian Cove development last Tuesday, October 5th. Residents of Aucoot were present to hear the revised channel plan explained and to voice objections to it. It is estimated by developers that 11,000 cubic yards of material will be removed to form a 2,000 yard channel 20 feet in width. This channel is described as for skiffs, either rowed or outboard powered.

Residents of Aucoot raised the following objections: 1) They stated that Massachusetts law prohibits a channel within 100 feet of a bathing beach. 2) The Jones law governing coastal marshes on Buzzards Bay, as in Chapter 743 of the Acts of 1971, which prohibits the removal of sand except for the purpose of shore protection and beach restoration. This act also states,

ANTIQUES STUDY GROUP MEETING

Twenty people attended the first meeting of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club Antique Study Group. A short business meeting was conducted by the hostess, Mrs. Ralph Dunn.

This year the group has chosen to continue the study of "Historic Mattapoisett". They will be doing research on community places, businesses, clubs and organizations. Members will report to the group and it will be recorded so that the past will not be forgotten.

The group has compiled last year's reports in booklets and they are being sold to the public. If anyone is interested in stories about people, and things of long ago, gathered from memories of those who knew and saw them, contact Mrs. Dunn or Mrs. James Harris.

Reports at the meeting were given by Miss Dorothy Fox, Mrs. Kenneth Wood, Mrs. Dunn and Mrs. Harris. Miss Fox gave the history of Mattapoisett's post offices. It was from the pony express days to the present time. Mrs. Wood gave the history of the Mattapoisett Fire Department which was

AREA RESIDENTS INVITED TO TEACH SPECIALTIES AT ORRHS

Old Rochester Regional High School invites anyone who is interested in working with Junior High School youth in small groups to take part in an innovative educational concept. Students are generally available from 12:25 P.M. to 2:06 P.M. for small group work. Any talent or interest which could serve at the basis for co-curricular educational experiences would be welcomed. These experiences, or mini-courses, could meet once a week or more, and last for anywhere from a week to a semester. Courses as varied as local history, crocheting, sailing, embroidery, yoga, macrame, retailing and first aid are encouraged and desired. It will be possible to remove students from the building for these courses if

Case Beats O.R. 8-6

A steady defense was not enough to hold off a determined Case team looking for its first win of the year. Case edged it 8 to 6. Old Rochester's Bulldogs won the toss and elected to receive. Richard Reilly brought the ball back to his 48 in a nice return. Paul Soares and Joe Bettencourt ran the ball for the first down on the Case 40. Then Bettencourt and Richie Silvia ran the ball to another first down on the 15. A third down pass from Bettencourt to Soares was good for a first down on the Case 10 and two plays later Quarterback Bettencourt scored from 3 yards away with a dive through center. The conversion try on a pass play failed and the score was a fast 6 to 0 in favor of the Bulldogs with the game only 12 plays old. At this point it looked like a Bulldog afternoon.

The first drive by Case ran up against a stubborn defense and Case was forced to kick. O.R. moved from their own 25 to a first down on the 38 at the end of the first quarter. Early in the second quarter Case was handed a golden opportunity by the Bulldogs. Forced to kick, the Bulldogs center the ball over the head of the kicker who had to go back for it and attempted to run. He was nailed on the O.R. 40 where Case took over. A couple of plays later, a nifty 28-yard scoring pass from Kevin Kelly to Tom White was nullified by a 15-yard penalty for holding. Four plays later a second 15-yard penalty wiped out the Case chances as they were forced to give up the ball.

After the half, Case received and put on a drive which George Edwards stymied by dropping Kevin Kelly, Case quarterback, for a 24-yard loss. Case dominated the third quarter by blocking an O.R. kick forcing the play into O.R. territory. The Bulldog defense held however and took over on the 25. O.R. moved for one first down and then was forced to punt from the O.R. 40. The punt was short and Case took over on the O.R. 48. Case was stopped on the O.R. 20 when their fumble was recovered by the Bulldogs. On the next play O.R. handed it back on a fumble and set up the Case scoring play. A pass from Kevin Kelly to Kevin Walmsley was good for a first down on the O.R. two. Bill Burke dove in to score. A Kelly to White pass play was good for the 2-point conversion and Case led 8 to 6.

Old Rochester had one more chance to pull it out when they drove to the Case 7 in the closing minutes of the game. Thrown for a 2-yard loss they faced a fourth down and 4 yards to go for a first down. Bettencourt

Harmony for Over 60's

A special treat is in store for Marion's elderly in the form of a concert, featuring favorite songs of all time to be given by the Cape Cod Retired Men's Chorus in the new Congregational Community Center's auditorium at 2:30 P.M. Tuesday, October 19.

All residents 60 years of age or older are cordially invited to attend. There will be no charge and refreshments will be served after the program. The Marion Council on Aging, sponsor of the affair, stresses that everyone in the over 60 bracket, whether they have registered with the Council or joined the new Sippican Seniors, will be welcome. So, too, will any interested younger persons.

The hall may be entered through the Congregational Chapel on Main Street or from the rear of the General Store parking lot.

The Cape Cod Retired Men's Chorus is an enthusiastic group of 35 senior vocalists, organized four years ago and directed by Clarence Arms of West Dennis. They sing in four-part harmony and bring to every program a wide variety of music.

Exciting Concert Series

GUEST SOLOIST AT CONCERT

When conductor John R. Pandolfi steps to the podium at 3 P.M. Sunday, October 31st, in the Gilbert D. Bristol Auditorium at Old Rochester Regional High School, he will officially open what is promising to be one of the most exciting concert seasons ever presented by the Tri-County Music Association, Inc., and the Regional Symphonic Band.

Following closely a most appreciated free Children's Concert on September 26th and a most gratifying response to the Association's annual appeal for patrons, sponsors and season ticket holders the concert on October 31 marks not only the return of a group of 46 of the most talented and enthusiastic musicians in the area, but also the return of a young pianist whose ability is well-known and whose performance of Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue" is eagerly awaited.

When 21-year old Donald L. Nahigyan, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Donald L. Nahigyan of Mattapoisett, was a student at Tabor Academy, his recitals as a pianist always were considered highlights of Tabor's yearly musical agendas. An organist for churches in Marion and Mattapoisett, he was a piano student of Mrs. Thelma K. Ostenfeld of Marion, Mrs. Alden S. Kinney of Mattapoisett and Mrs. Frederic E. Reynard, formerly of Mattapoisett, and now of Ledyard, Connecticut.

Upon graduating Cum Laude in 1968, he was a recipient of the Morehead Scholarship at the University of North Carolina where he is currently a senior and completing his requirements for a Bachelor's Degree in Chemistry. Last February he received critical acclaim for his recital of Bach and Chopin compositions at UNC where he has been continuing his study of piano under Mr. Michael Zenge.

Preparing for the performance of "Rhapsody in Blue" on October 31, Regional Symphonic Band conductor John Pandolfi and guest piano soloist, Donald L. Nahigyan, Jr., met this summer for a review of the intricacies of this Gershwin composition.

On the weekend of October 15, Nahigyan will participate in a concerto competition with the Charleston Symphony Orchestra in Charleston, South Carolina.

An Eagle Scout, a skiing and boating enthusiast, and a former president of the Tabor Glee Club and Choir, "Nick" will invoke fond memories by people who have been associated with him in all of these endeavors, when he walks out on the stage on October 31.

Other concerts in the series will be given on December 12, with the Regional Civic Chorus as the special guest attraction, and on March 10 with a soloist to be announced.

Meanwhile, on Friday night, December 3, the Tri-County Music Association, Inc. will sponsor "SNO-BALL, 1971" at the recently beautifully redecorated New Bedford Country Club.

Mattapoisett Grange

Mattapoisett Grange held its bi-monthly meeting last Thursday night with the worthy overseer Mark Harris presiding. Worthy master Mark Breton who had had an accident at school was unable to preside.

The quarterly report was given by the chairman of the executive committee. An invitation was read from Hazel Millett, chaplain of O-Ne-Set Grange to attend the Corresponding Officers' Night October 11th. Ollie Gifford was elected alternate delegate to the State Grange Session in case the worthy master cannot attend.

The Lecturer's March was won by Mrs. Edith Johansen. Following the march a lively paper bag auction was held with Mark Harris as auctioneer.

The lecturer announced for the next meeting, October 21st, a Halloween program will be presented by Ollie Gifford, Mark Harris and Katherine Buckley.

They announced all members should be in costume.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wilson.

CELEBRATING FIRE PREVENTION

Patricia Green, Kevin Downey and David Ferron, of Mattapoisett Center School, are representing the pupils of Mattapoisett as they dress up for fire prevention. Students have mounted a very impressive fire prevention display in the lobby to draw attention to the need for constant care in the home against the ever present danger of fire. In Center School, fire drills have attained very impressive efficiency in the evacuation of the building. Fire Chief Paul Bradley has been very impressed with the children's performance. Mr. Bradley played host at the Fire Station on Friday, October 8th as classes toured the engine
